

Philip H. Evans

Clarinetist

For more than 30 years, clarinetist Philip Evans performed regularly with many of Southern California's leading symphony orchestras, including the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, Los Angeles Philharmonic New Music Group, Pacific Symphony, Hollywood Bowl Orchestra, New West Symphony, Pasadena Symphony, Los Angeles Mozart Orchestra, and the Santa Barbara Symphony.

As a member of the Los Angeles Music Center Ballet Orchestra, Philip performed with numerous acclaimed American and European ballet companies, including the American Ballet Theatre, Bolshoi Ballet Theatre, Royal Ballet Covent Garden, La Scala Ballet, Royal Danish Ballet, Royal Swedish Ballet, San Francisco Ballet, and Miami City Ballet. He also performed regularly with Los Angeles Opera and Opera Pacific.

Philip's recording credits include projects for Paramount Pictures, Sony Pictures, Walt Disney Studios, Capitol Records, the Los Angeles Philharmonic, and the Pacific Symphony. He has performed on live televised Grammy Awards broadcasts, and toured throughout the United States and Europe with the Los Angeles Philharmonic and the Pacific Symphony.

Throughout his professional career, Philip has had the privilege of performing under the direction of many distinguished conductors, including Esa-Pekka Salonen, Sir Simon Rattle, Pierre Boulez, Zubin Mehta, Daniel Harding, Thomas Ades, Sir Mark Elder, Alan Gilbert, Hans Graf, Leonard Slatkin, Vladamir Jurowski, Marin Alsop, Ivan Fischer, Pinchas Zuckerman, James Conlon, Kent Nagano, John Williams, Quincy Jones, Carl St. Clair, Alexander Shelley, John Mauceri, Bramwell Tovey, and John DeMain.